

Association of Volunteer Managers

Presents: The Future of Volunteer Managers.

When: 23rd September, 2009 from 12noon to 4pm

Where: Scope, 6 Market Road, N7 6PW

Programme

- 12noon Registration and Lunch
- 12.40pm Welcome from Scope – Nikki Squelch
- 12.45pm Annual General Meeting: Chaired by Sean Cobley
- Annual Report
 - Financial Report
 - Elections
- 1pm The Future of Volunteer Managers
Introduction by Steve Howlett, Roehampton University and AVM director: What research tells us of the value of volunteer managers
- 1.15 pm Address by John Knights, Volunteering Policy Manager, Office of the Third Sector, Cabinet Office: How does government policy support and recognise volunteer managers?
- 1.30pm Are We Worth It? – led by Kate Bowgett and Debbie Usiskin
Workshop sessions: How can we find a way of measuring the impact of volunteer managers?
- 2.10 pm Feedback from workshops and next steps
- 2.30pm Comfort Break
- 2.45pm Results from research and an overview of 'Modernising Volunteering' Jamie Thomas, Red Foundation.
- 3.15pm What should AVM be doing for you as someone who manages volunteers? You help decide!
What three things as an AVM member do you think AVM should focus on addressing over the next 18 months in order to take the profession of volunteer management forward, after all this is your organisation.
Sean Cobley and Alan Murray.
- 3.45pm Questions, comments and feedback
- Panel Session: Sean Cobley, Debbie Usiskin
- 3.55pm Closing remarks: Sean Cobley, Chair AVM
- 4pm Networking and refreshments.